Your hosts : AMOR

Amor is a local guide from Tataouine. Unlike many other young people, he decided to stay in the remote region of Tataouine and develop his business by working with families and locals to create a virtuous circle of circular tourism. He organizes and accompanies authentic escapades in southern Tunisia. Supported by WildyNess, he's a true lover of his region and a connoisseur of its hidden treasures all around.

Highlights of the experience:

- A sustainable and mutually supportive experience;
- A picturesque and authentic Saharan environment;
- Dishes cooked by local women;
- Total immersion in the daily life of the local population;
- A stay in sustainable, organic accommodation;
- All activities are carried out with and by local people (community tourism).

Ideal if you're looking for activities to ...

- Families with children ;
- Retirees ;
- Couples getaway ;
- Solo travelers;
- Nature and discovery lovers;
- Eco-travelers ;

The spirit

In a relaxed, friendly atmosphere, we offer you a place to switch off and get away from it all. With the local population, you'll enjoy authentic experiences rich in quality exchanges and learning moments. In our beautiful region of Tataouine, this active solidarity trip lets you leave a great social impact on the local population.

We've got you covered...

An immersive culinary experience that will leave you with unforgettable memories.
